Only Living U. S. Ex-President is Today Observing His 75th Birthday Anniversary

STANFORD UNIVER-SITY, Calif., Aug. 10—(AP)— Herbert Clark Hoover is 75 years old today, and tributes for the country's only living ex-president poured in from all over the world.

Late today Stanford university will honor its most illustrious graduate in the Frost amphitheater. A crowd of 12,000 to 14,000 was expected.

The program will be climaxed by a major address by Mr. Hoover, beginning at 5 p. m., PST (7 p. m. CST). His topic will be "Think of the Next Generation."

Even Mr. Hoover, who once said "I have had every honor to which any man could aspire," probably was surprised by the stir created by his birthday anniversary and by the congratulator letters by the thousands.

Bus Hits Bridge, 15 Dead

Front Tire May Have Blown Out: Skidded Down Road, Burst Into Flames

By Dale Burgess

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 10 -(A)-Fifteen persons died in the flaming wreckage of a Greyhound bus that burned after smashing into a bridge abutment near here

None of the dead has been idenified.

The bus, bound from Indianapolis to Bloomington, hit the bridge on a winding, hilly road shortly after midnight. Seconds later it was in flames.

Coroner Robert W. Lyons of

Two Killed In Plane Crash At Centennial

Lebanon Business Leaders Lose Lives As Parade Forms

LEBANON, Mo., Aug. 10-(AP)-Two prominent Lebanon businessmen went up in a light plane to scatter confetti over a centennial celebration parade here Tuesday. The plane crashed in the town, killing both men.

The tragedy occurred as about 15,000 persons lined the streets to watch a two-mile long parade in observance of Laclede county's 100th anniversary.

The victims were E. R. Bethel, former city councilman, a member of the city park board, and owner of an appliance company, and Don Barto, member of the park board, well-known sportsman, and owner of an electrical supply company. Both were about 50 years old.

• What They Say

Samuel R. Greer (manager, West-Central Electric Cooperative, Inc., Higginsville, Missouri) ----My attention has been called to the article in your July 17th paper issue, "Goring Whose

Your comment seems to bear out the fact that you are very much in agreement with the Missouri Public Service Company's "comeback" as you label it.

Have you in the past years, say some twenty years ago, ever lived in a rural area where the people attempted to get a private utility company to extend electricity to them? Perhaps you have or perhaps you have not. As much as 35 years ago my father, with other members from my community, met with private company officials some two or three times (I tagged along) to try to get electricity extended to our rural community. The ultimate answer received following each conference with the private companies was practically the same in all instances, that being yes, we could get electricity provided we paid $1,500 per mile and each guaranteed minimums of from $6 to $10 per month and in many cases in addition were required to buy certain amounts and types of high priced equipment. You know the answer. Mr. Scruton - most farmers could not afford to furnish such capital investment, turning it over to the companies as their sole property and in addition guarantee such minimums. Talk about profits, what sort of profits do you think that type of a deal meant to those people? Even the majority of the city people could not have afforded electricity had they been asked to make such investments to get the electric ser-

You make much of the $4.41 referred to in the Missouri Public Service article and add your comment as to this being a "sizeable profit for even a Co-op." Mr. Scruton, you know as well as I know that the statement as originally made and further enlarged upon by you is a gross overstatement and thereby definitely becomes an inroad upon the intelligence of the people who read your article, both urban and rural. According to this statement there would be no allowance for overhead costs such as interest, taxes, amortization of the loan for construction, maintenance, servicing or anything else. Just buy the power at 96c per 80 kilowatts and sell it at $5.37 and the difference is profit.

One other thing you should acquaint yourself with, Mr. Scruton, is the fact that you or we or anyone else cannot buy 80 kilowatts of generated electricity and deliver that some 80 kilowatts to the point of usage. This is further indication of willful inconsideration and gross

No direct criticism has even been thrown at the Missouri Public Service Company by me or any others of my Cooperative. The statements made by me under broadcast were made from my position as board member of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association for the State of Missouri. Therefore, I was speaking in general for Missouri Electric Co-ops and not for any one individual cooperative. There are plenty of individual cooperatives that I might speak specifically about. I have no apology to make to anyone for statements made on the broadcast. Facts can be presented showing where Missouri Electric Co-ops have been required to pay wholesale rates along most any figure you would care to mention up to 2.6c per kilowatt wholesale. The power that many of our private companies claim they have, they simply do not have. If they do have, why has it been necessary that new lines built by the cooperatives in the state of Missouri have been required to stand idle for weeks and in some cases, even months waiting their bountiful power? Some systems have had power systems disconnected evening after evening at the most critical point of the farmer's operations and this has not gone on just now and then but for weeks and months running into even years in some instances.

We, the Missouri rural people as well as all other rural people, are lucky to have a few power projects now old enough to be used as a yardstick to determine just what has been happening to us in the past. On this point I would refer you to the Honorable John E. Rankin's speech to the House of Representatives Friday, July 1, 1949, and which is now a part of the Congressional Record. This report states that if TVA rates had been in effect in Missouri during 1948 our Missouri consumers of electricity would have saved for themselves $15,957,982. If Tacoma, Wash., rates had been in effect in Missouri our electricity would have cost us $17,369,232 less than it did in 1948. If Missouri had experienced rates comparable to Ontario, Canada power project we could have saved $19,069,969 in 1948. This should give you some insight into the matter which has brought about this comment and further acquaint you with the "ox" involved. If we were inconsiderate enough to claim that private companies put aside everything beside actual generation cost as a profit what do you think a comparative figure to the $4.41 would look like for them? I am quite sure they would prefer that I not put it in print. Yes, Mr. Scruton, I believe even the urban or city people would be interested in the savings that might be theirs if they knew more about the public power program and the way it might affect them.

Also, we would like to be given privilege to talk in terms of facts and fairness and not in terms of gross overstatements.

David W. Angevine (Information and Publicity Division, Consumers Cooperative Association, Kansas City (13), Missouri) - One co-op answer is that if there was any overcharge to the consumer, he'll get it back through his cooperative.

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Robert S. Allen Begins Writing Column Tomorrow

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, August 10-Maybe I should not admit it, but I've been having increasing trouble with my wife lately. Usually she is the easiest person in the world to get along with - but not in August.

Every summer she labors under the delusion that Washington is not cool in August and that I can write a column just as well from some other part of the USA. She even jolts my selfesteem by insinuating that the world would get along just as well if no column was written at all - for awhile.

In vain do I argue that someone has to keep an eye on the lobbyists and the legislators. It does no good. The five-percenters could run off with the U. S. treasury and Mrs. P. just would not worry about it if the thermometer was above 80.

In vain, also, do I scan the weather reports and gloat over the fact that it's been 97 in New York, 96 in Philadelphia, 99 in Nebraska and only 99 in Nebraska and only 95 in Washington. Washington, I argue, is a much cooler place. But it makes no difference.

"We don't have to go to New York, Philadelphia or Nebraska," Mrs. P. replies. "There are other places in the U.S.A. besides New York, Philadelphia or Nebraska-such as Can-

Obviously I can't win. I should have known this from previous summers. But there is nothing more unwise than a stubborn husband, so I resorted to delaying tactics . I got out the railroad and airplane timetables and left them in a conspicuous place in the living room. It did no good. Mrs. P. wanted a date, the exact date, the hour, the name of the hotel, the time of the train's departure. I even told her that Bob Allen was busy and wasn't ready yet to take over the column. She didn't swallow that one either.

"If you don't need a vacation then General Vaughan does," was her comeback. "I'm almost beginning to feel sorry for him."

So this is to announce that having reached the end of my domestic rope, this will be the last column to be foisted on a hot and helpless public until September. The best reporter in Washington, Bob Allen, has been kind enough to take over until then.

Keeping Score on Truman

Before I close the season's score, however, there are a couple of points I would like to set straight. If anything should happen to me I would not want the wrong impression to prevail about certain people.

For instance, I have been pretty rough on some of the White House hangers-on who influence President Truman. But while I deplore the choice of these White House cronies, I continue to applaud most of Truman's legislative program.

The President is sincere, honest, diligent sometimes vindictive, frequently impulsive, and not always efficient. But history will show that 90 per cent of the time he has been fighting for the little fellow-and that's a lot more than can be said of some Presidents.

The great tragedy is that he harms his own program and the common folks he is trying to help by helping his own stubborn loyalty to certain cronies.

Byrnes and Truman

Some time ago I wrote a column about the differences between President Truman and Exsecretary of State Byrnes, in which I reported that Mr. Truman had become irked at Mr. Byrnes just a week or so before he resigned, and that Byrnes' resignation, which he himself had planned for some time, had been hastened by that irritation.

Mr. Byrnes has now written me that the latter part of this column was incorrect and that Mr. Truman was not irked. I regret this error ,and am glad to make the correction.

I should like further to repeat what I have written before, that in my opinion Jimmie Byrnes resigned just when he was striking his real stride as a great Secretary of State.

I have always felt that the country would have been much better off if he had continued in office; for General Marshall, fine and sincere as he was, had to unlearn the military habits of a lifetime-which was not easy. Thus for a year or more the nation marked time when it should have been marching forward on the road to peace.

Will Tom Clark be Liberal?

Some Republican Senators, plus certain newspapers, have been panning Tom Clark, the attorney general. They claim he is a politician, a hack lawyer and no addition to the supreme

I think they're wrong. Tom Clark has his faults, and some eccentricities. He looks like a politician, he talks like a politician, but when the chips are down he's a tough, go-through fighter, with a pretty consistent record of battling for the little guy. When Tom first became attorney general, critics said he wouldn't have the nerve to go after the big monopolies. Thurman Arnold's trust-busting, they said, would come to a dead halt. But Tom fooled 'em. He has brought twice as many anti-trust cases as any other attorney general-including the case to break up the Du Pont empire, one of the toughest ever to come out of the justice department.

When Tom Clark was a student at the "LUCKY" WINNERS—Albert Birnbaum and his wife, Edna, consider the problems they inherited when a 50-cent raffle ticket won them a $16,000 house. The problems are: the house is located on a lot in New York City; it must be moved; moving costs will run $1800; the Birnbaums have no lot, and they didn't need a house in the first place.

Visitor Lands His Plane In New Roadway

Astonishment was created in the Lookout neighborhood near Beaman Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. George M. Adams noticed a plane circling for a landing on the new road being constructed in that district. Mrs. Adams took the mail box out of the road so the plane could land and with her sister-in-law, June Adams, of Sedalia she drove in their car to meet the plane. When it had landed Mrs. Adams found the who has made a hobby of flying Mr. Taylor's mother is Mrs. Melvin Hornbeck, of Sedalia.

Mr. Taylor spent the night at the Adams home where he parked the plane in the yard. Then the next day he once again took to the air after a pleasant visit

OH, (DON'T) GIVE ME A HOME—This is the "dream house," valued at $16,000, which Mr. and Mrs. Albert Birnbaum of New York City won on a 50-cent raffle ticket. The joker was that no lot went with the house, and the Birnbaums, being apartment dwellers, hardly know what to do with it. This problem, plus the cost of moving the house, income taxes and other considerations has made the "dream house" a nightmare to the "lucky" winners.

It isn't true any more. Authors are a somber crew today. Know Value of Words Perhaps they are chary of using words because they know the value of words-they are paid for using them. When they do break out in conversation, it is usually along these lines:

A. "Is your literary agent as big a louse as mine? What do they do for their 10 per cent?" B. "My publisher is a robber."

C. "My publisher is an ignoramus." D. "My publisher's mother once won the best-of-show award at the Westchester Kennel club."

E. "Have you read that stinking novel by Joe Doakes, "Love Under the Neon Sign?" How did it make the best-seller list? I could sneeze a better book than that."

Actors No Better

No, there is nothing more dis-Illusioning than the conversation

Actors are but little better. All the world's a stage to them, and in restaurants they have a bad habit of ordering catsup like it was rare old Napoleon brandy. Financiers could be fun, if they'd relax and really tell you what's going on in the money market. But they don't-probably because they don't know them selves. Weather forecasters, I find, are pretty much like old sailors -after the third hot air mass filters through the conversation you can't believe a word they say.

Military Lore Generals are full of medals and quaint military lore. But in discussing their campaigns they identify their armies with themselves. They say, "He (the enemy) hit me in my flank, and hurt me a little, but I cut him up and went on." Privates and corporals never talk that way.

A. C. Mynatt

Monday at the noon hour Mr. Mynatt was presented with a traveling bag by his fellow employes who wished him farewell after a long and faithful career with the Missouri Pacific. The presentation was made by Cecil R. Lutgen, committeeman for the Firemen and Oilers labor organization of which Mr. Mynatt was a

Mr. Mynatt began his railroad career with the Rock Island, working out of Ionia, on the section. After about two years with this railroad he returned to farming which he continued until 1919 when he quit the farm and went to work for the M. K. and T. in Sedalia, working as a laborer and power plant fireman. In May 1923 he went to work at the Missouri Pacific shops as a laborer and vas later transferred to the power plant as a class A laborer. This promotion came in 1935. In 1944 Mr. Mynatt was promoted to power house fireman working from 3 p. m. to 11 p. m. and held that job continuously until his retirement on August 1, 1949.

During his entire railroad career Mr. Mynatt has never sustained a reportable injury, has always been active in Booster activities and a member and former officer of the Firemen and Oilers Labor organization. Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt will continue to reside at their home 1644 South Sneed avenue in Sedalia where he will garden and take care of several flower beds, as growing flowers is his hobby.

Bill Middleton is a nephew of

Mrs. Jim Watkins, of Otterville,

For Ambulance Service. Ph

William Frederick Middleton, who was born in Sedalia about 22 years ago, is making strides in the musical world having his own dance band. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Middleton, who left Sedalia about 12 years ago, for Wichita, Kas. His father was with the City Light and Traction company here for a number of years and was then transferred to Wichita. His mother was formerly Rosalie Steinwald, a nurse at the hospital here.

Middleton started his musical career in Sedalia at the age of seven and has a picture taken with his saxophone to prove it. In fact, that is the picture used in the Plamor advertisement in the Wichita paper where he is now playing. Under the picture was printed: "Sorry, no recent photos available." At 15 he started playing public engagements and has traveled with bands all over the country. Now he is starting with a new venture, a band of his own, and his picture is on the cover of "Downtown Wichita" a publication about people and places of that city. An article in the same publication has the following to say of the young band leader: Smiling Young Man

"The smiling young man who adorns our front cover this week his slogan, Bill's band plays, is none other than William Fred- 'Musc As You Like It' and dance erick Middleton, better known to lovers will enjoy hearing this his friends as "Bill." a case, and having played with pest avenue. most of the local orchestras, he is now on his own with a snappy dance band that is open for engagements. He is booked solid for the next two weeks, and has other tentative engagements waiting when the two weeks are up. With Name Bands

"In addition to his experience with local bands, Billy has been on the roads with such bands as Gus Martel, Criss Cross, and Freddie Nagel, all of whom have played in Wichita in the past. He just recently finished a very successful season with Henry Busse, where he was on of the featured saxophone players. His training under these famous band leaders more than qualifies him to know what the public likes in dance music, and his present band was built around the idea of giving the customers what they want.

"After serving in the U.S. Navy Band during the war, Bill returned to Wichita and enrolled in the Wichita university, where he took all the musical courses available. While attending the university he met several members of his present band, all of whom are local musicians. His featured vocalist, Bette Mac, has sung with numerous orchestras, and has modeled for the Wichita Art Association. As

GET "Lubri-tection"!

Lubrication plus engine protection . . . get both with Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil

The car you own today represents a big investment. Like the price of nearly everything you buy, new car prices are way up! Repairs and spare parts cost more, too!

So help protect your engine and your pocketbook with Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil. With this fine oil you get lubrication plus the engine protection provided by chemical additives which combat dangerous sludge and varnish . . . help keep repair costs down. Yes, Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil gives you "Lubri-tection." Ask for it at stations where you see the familiar orange and black Phillips 66 Shield.

YOU'RE INVITED to take a guided tour of America's newest, most modern motor oil plant at Kansas City, Kansas. It's the great new home of Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil. If you're in the vicinity of Kansas City, ask any Phillips 66 Dealer for directions. Conducted tours every hour on the hour from nine to five-Monday through Friday.

ENMESHED-This ship looks as if it's caught in a gigantic spider web-and that's not far from the truth. The ship is a brass scale model miniature "long hull" destroyer, whose topside structures are precisely scaled counterparts of those on full-sized naval vessels. The "web" in which it is apparently caught is a mesh of hardware cloth, mounted on a turntable. The set-up is used by the U. S. Navy Electronics Laboratory at San Diego, Calif., in investigating radiation characteristics of shipboard radio antennas. The hardware cloth stimulates the conductivity of the ocean at regular communications frequencies.

SHOP THURSDAY NIGHT 'TIL 9 O'CLOCK

As we previously announced to the people of this area last week, our stores will be open each Thursday night until 9 o'clock for the shopping convenience of our customers.

It was gratifying to see the large number of people who shopped last Thursday night, and since we have committed our stores to this trial 60-day period, and because we believe, and you have demonstrated, that many of you prefer a middle-of-the-week shopping night, our stores will continue to be open until 9 o'clock each Thursday night throughout the August and September trial period.

We hope the people of the Sedalia trading area will take advantage of this Thursday night shopping convenience and the special merchandise features offered by many of our stores.

the Gulf of Mexico, roughly 3000 by 1500 miles, is now under 24hour-a-day watch. The most modern radar, seismographic and other weather instruments, plus hundreds of airplanes, are being used in this work.

The official hurricane season is June 1 through Nov. 30. The center of the season, however, during which the most violent storms usually occur, is between Aug. 20 and Sept. 20.

First news of a developing tropical storm usually comes from such sources as ships at sea, commercial airliners, CAA and Weather Bureau Stations, long range approximately. Then Navy and fixed where the lines intersect. Air Force hurricane patrols fly into the teeth of the gale in an effort to locate the "eye." Only when the eye is found can the correct path, speed and direction of the disturbance be plotted.

This method gives about a 24hour advance notice of where a hurricane will hit the shore. It is this warning which is so vital to saving lives and property.

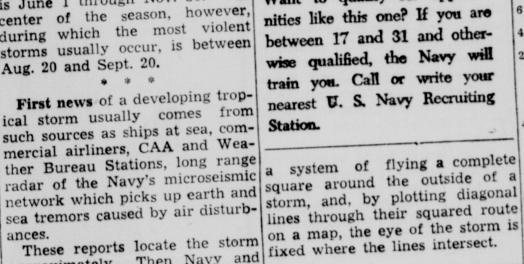

Main base of the Navy's fliers doing this work is Miami. There are also hurricane patrols out of Pensacola, Fla., Corpus Christi, Tex., and other bases. Air Force planes also use Miami as well as Bermuda and Puerto Rico.

The White House went ahead with plans for combating unemployment by concentrating on federal spending in troubled Presidential aide John R. Steelman released a letter to military procurement people and other spending agencies naming specific areas which could be helped by the concentration of government outlays. Also, the Steelman letter set a standard for determining when a section is so troubled by unemployment as to require a transfusion of federal dollars to pep up its economy.

The Standard: Unemployment amounting to 12 per cent or more of the available labor force. That means that federal aid should be given whenever as many as 12 in each 100 persons wanting jobs are unable to find them.

Steelman's new standard in effect defined as a "troubled" area any places where the unemployment problem is approximately twice as bad as that for the nation as a whole, as reflected in the census bureau's national figures for July.

The bureau reported unemployment, highest since early 1942, totaled 4,095,000 in a civilian laoor force of 63,815,000. That would make the national unemployment approximately 6.4 per cent of the working population. Steelman told the spending agencies that the places which need help to absorb unemployed workers are New Bedford, and Worchester, Mass., Providence, R. I., Waterbury and Bridgeport in Connecticut, the Utica-Rome, N. Y., area, the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre, Pa., area, Muskegon, Mich.,

and Knoxville, Tenn. Other areas will be designated ater as data on labor situations are developed, Steelman told the agencies. He said, in fact, that the Lawrence, Mass., and Cumberland, Md., areas probably will be so classified.

Quiet Wedding U. S. Airmen in England Adopt Conduct Code

LONDON, Aug. 10—(P)— U.S. airmen in England made public today a voluntary good conduct code whose theme is "Don't let's be beastly to the British."

It advises the GI's to swear off griping about British food, talking too much, playing the black markets and boasting about America.

The code was published in the "United Kingdom Eagle," weekly newspaper of the 3rd Air Division headquarters at suburban Ruislip.

It was hammered out by the enlisted men themselves in one of their weekly discussion hours. Some 8,000 U.S. airmen are stationed in England, including the personnel of three B29 Superfort groups in the Midlands and a big force of aircraft maintenance men at Burtonwood.

Expediter Was Asked to Hurry Permit Along

He Tells Senate Committee Military Aide Came to Him

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—(A)— Housing expediter Tighe E. Woods said today he recalls that Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan asked him to "hurry" along a construction permit for the Tanforan race track.

Woods told a Senate investigating subcommittee that Vaughin, President Truman's military aide, came to his office Jan. 12, 1948, to make the plea. He said Vaughan was accompanied by Eugene Mori of Camden, N. J., listed as Tanforan's president.

Woods previously had told the subcommittee only of being called to the White House Jan. 9, last year by Vaughan to discuss the Tanforan matter. He quoted Vaughan as telling him at the White House meeting that "some of my friends" were interested in the case. Asked to Hurry

Woods said that at the meeting three days later he believed that Vaughan asked him to "please hurry" along the permit because there was "something" before the California race track commission which would make Tanforan lose Supt. of Concessions its franchise if the construction work could not proceed.

Lebanon Business Leaders Lose Lives As Parade Forms

LEBANON, Mo., Aug. 10—(AP)-Two prominent Lebanon businessmen went up in a light plane to scatter confetti over a centennial celebration parade here Tuesday. The plane crashed in the town, killing both men.

The tragedy occurred as about 15,000 persons lined the streets to watch a two-mile long parade in observance of Laclede county' 100th anniversary.

The victims were E. R. Bethel former city councilman, a member of the city park board, and owner of an appliance company, and Don Barto, member of the park board, well-known sportsman, and owner of an electrical supply company. Both were about 50 years old. Bethel's wife and their two

• What They Say

Samuel R. Greer (manager, West-Central Electric Cooperative, Inc., Higginsville, Missouri) My attention has been called to the article in your July 17th paper issue, "Goring Whose

Your comment seems to bear out the fact that you are very much in agreement with the Missouri Public Service Company's "comeback" as you label it.

Have you in the past years, say some twenty years ago, ever lived in a rural area where the people attempted to get a private utility company to extend electricity to them? Perhaps you have or perhaps you have not. As much as 35 years ago my father, with other members from my community, met with private company officials some two or three times (I tagged along) to try to get electricity extended to our rural community. The ultimate answer received following each conference with the private companies was practically the same in all instances, that being yes, we could get electricity provided we paid $1,500 per mile and each guaranteed minimums of from $6 to $10 per month and in many cases in addition were required to buy certain amounts and types of high priced equipment. You know the answer. Mr. Scruton - most farmers could not afford to furnish such capital investment, turning it over to the companies as their sole property and in addition guarantee such minimums. Talk about profits, what sort of profits do you think that type of a deal meant to those people? Even the majority of the city people could not have afforded electricity had they been asked to make such investments to get the electric ser-

You make much of the $4.41 referred to in the Missouri Public Service article and add your comment as to this being a "sizeable profit for even a Co-op." Mr. Scruton, you know as well as I know that the statement as originally made and further enlarged upon by you is a gross overstatement and thereby definitely becomes an inroad upon the intelligence of the people who read your article, both urban and rural. According to this statement there would be no allowance for overhead costs such as interest, taxes, amortization of the loan for construction, maintenance, servicing or anything else. Just buy the power at 96c per 80 kilowatts and sell it at $5.37 and the difference is profit.

One other thing you should acquaint yourself with, Mr. Scruton, is the fact that you or we or anyone else cannot buy 80 kilowatts of generated electricity and deliver that some 80 kilowatts to the point of usage. This is further indication of willful inconsideration and gross overstatement.

No direct criticism has even been thrown at the Missouri Public Service Company by me or any others of my Cooperative. The statements made by me under broadcast were made from my position as board member of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association for the State of Missouri. Therefore, I was speaking in general for Missouri Electric Co-ops and not for any one individual cooperative. There are plenty of individual cooperatives that I might speak specifically about.

I have no apology to make to anyone for statements made on the broadcast. Facts can be presented showing where Missouri Electric Co-ops have been required to pay wholesale rates along most any figure you would care to mention up to 2.6c per kilowatt wholesale. The power that many of our private companies claim they have, they simply do not have. If they do have, why has it been necessary that new lines built by the cooperatives in the state of Missouri have been required to stand idle for weeks and in some cases, even months waiting their bountiful power? Some systems have had power systems disconnected evening after evening at the most critical point of the farmer's operations and this has not gone on just now and then but for weeks and months running into even years in some instances. We, the Missouri rural people as well as all other rural people, are lucky to have a few power projects now old enough to be used as a yardstick to determine just what has been happening to us in the past. On this point I would refer you to the Honorable John E. Rankin's speech to the House of Representatives Friday, July 1, 1949, and which is now a part of the Congressional Record. This report states that if TVA rates had been in effect in Missouri during 1948 our Missouri consumers of electricity would have saved for themselves $15,957,982. If Tacoma, Wash., rates had been in effect in Missouri our electricity would have cost us $17,369,232 less than it did in 1948. If Missouri had experienced rates comparable to Ontario, Canada power project we could have saved $19,069,969 in 1948. This should give you some insight into the matter which has brought about this comment and further acquaint you

that private companies put aside everything beside actual generation cost as a profit what do you think a comparative figure to the $4.41 would look like for them? I am quite sure they would prefer that I not put it in print. Yes, Mr. Scruton, I believe even the urban or city people would be interested in the savings that might be theirs if they knew more about the public power program and the way it might affect them.

Also, we would like to be given privilege to talk in terms of facts and fairness and not in terms of gross overstatements.

David W. Angevine (Information and Publicity Division, Consumers Cooperative Association, Kansas City (13), Missouri) - One co-op answer is that if there was any overcharge to the consumer, he'll get it back through his cooperative.

Some time ago I wrote a column about the differences between President Truman and Exsecretary of State Byrnes, in which I reported that Mr. Truman had become irked at Mr. Byrnes just a week or so before he resigned. and that Byrnes' resignation, which he himself had planned for some time, had been hastened

William Frederick Middleton, dance band. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Middleton, who left Sedalia about 12 years ago, for Wichita, Kas. His father was with the City Light and Traction company here for a number of years ind was then transferred to Wichita. His mother was formerly Rosalie Steinwald, a nurse at the ospital here. Middleton started his musical career in Sedalia at the age of seven and has a picture taken with his saxophone to prove it. In fact, hat is the picture used in the Plamor advertisement in the Wichita paper where he is now playing. Under the picture was printed: "Sorry, no recent photos available." At 15 he started playthe public engagements and has traveled with bands all over the country. Now he is starting with a new venture, a band of his own, and his picture is on the cover of 'Downtown Wichita" a publication about people and places of that aty. An article in the same publication has the following to say of the young band leader:

Smiling Young Man

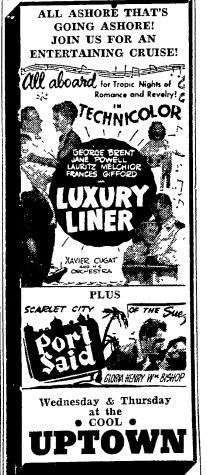

"The smiling young man who adorns our front cover this week his slogan, Bill's band plays, is none other than William Fred- 'Musc As You Like It' and dance erick Middleton, better known to lovers will enjoy hearing this his friends as "Bill." He is the newest Wichita musical aggregason of Mr. and Mrs. Don Middle- tion." ton, of 1202 South Minneapolis, business venture. Having studied Mrs. Jim Watkins, of Otterville, and played saxophone ever since and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. he was big enough to carry one in Frank Middleton, 321 North Prosa case, and having played with pest avenue. most of the local orchestras, he is now on his own with a snappy dance band that is open for engagements. He is booked solid for the next two weeks, and has other tentative engagements waiting when the two weeks are up. With Name Bands

"In addition to his experience with local bands, Billy has been on the roads with such bands as Gus Martel, Criss Cross, and Freddie Nagel, all of whom have played in Wichita in the past. He just recently finished a very successful season with Henry Busse, where he was on of the featured saxo-phone players. His training under these famous band leaders more than qualifies him to know what the public likes in dance music, and his present band was built around the idea of giving the customers what they want.

"After serving in the U.S. Navy Band during the war, Bill returned to Wichita and enrolled in the Wichita university, where he took all the musical courses available. While attending the university he met several members of his present band, all of whom are local musicians. His featured vocalist, Bette Mac, has sung with numerous orchestras, and has modeled for the Wichita Art Association. As

SHOP THURSDAY

As we previously announced to the people of this area last week, our stores will be open each Thursday night until 9 o'clock for the shopping convenience of our customers.

It was gratifying to see the large number of people who shopped last Thursday night, and since we have committed our stores to this trial 60-day period, and because we believe, and you have demonstrated, that many of you prefer a middle-of-the-week shopping night, our stores will continue to be open until 9 o'clock each Thursday night throughout the August and September trial period.

We hope the people of the Sedalia trading area will take advantage of this Thursday night shopping convenience and the special merchandise features offered by many of our stores.

Champs To Be Decided Yet

Each team has taken seven victories while allowing only one defeat. Both teams have four games left to play, one between themselves which may decide the league championship for the second half of the season.

The starting hurler for the Chiefs has not been announced, but will probably be Brown or "Big Jim" Egbert. The regular line-up will be in the field.

Boonville comes to Sedalia and Moberly goes to Jefferson City for the league's only Sunday engage-Friday night, the Chiefs will the Gulf of Mexico, roughly 3000 by 1500 miles, is now under 24-hour-a-day watch. The most modern radar, seismographic and other weather instruments, plus hundreds of airplanes, are being used in this work.

The official hurricane seasor is June 1 through Nov. 30. The center of the season, however during which the most violent storms usually occur, is between Aug. 20 and Sept. 20.

First news of a developing tropical storm usually comes from such sources as ships at sea, commercial airliners, CAA and Weather Bureau Stations, long range network which picks up earth and square around the outside of a radar of the Navy's microseismic sea tremors caused by air disturb-lines through their squared route These reports locate the storm on a map, the eye of the storm is approximately. Then Navy and fixed where the lines intersect. Air Force hurricane patrols fly into the teeth of the gale in an effort to locate the "eye." Only when the eye is found can the correct path, speed and direction of the disturbance be plotted

This method gives about a 24hour advance notice of where a hurricane will hit the shore. It is this warning which is so vital to saving lives and property

Main base of the Navy's fliers doing this work is Miami. There are also hurricane patrols out of Pensacola, Fla., Corpus Christi, Tex., and other bases. Air Force olanes also use Miami as well as Bermuda and Puerto Rico.

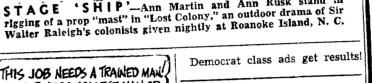

All information on hurricanes is coordinated in Miami. Aid Planned To Assist Areas Hard Hit As Result Of Unemployment

Up In June

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 - (AP) — Personal incomes, the mainspring of consumer buying power, increased in June, the Commerce departnent reported Tuesday.

The rise helped push such incomes for the first six months of 1949 to a level 2.6per cent higher than the first half of boom time 1948.

The report estimated that the flow of personal income from all sources reached an annual rate of $213,500,000,000 in June. (This igure was arrived at by taking income for June, adjusting it for seasonal factors, and multiplying Democrat-Capital class ads get by 12.) For the period January through June, 1949, the annual rate was $213,400,000,000.

A study of the Commerce department figures showed that the upturn had been going on for three months, April through June, and that the gain accelerated a it continued.

Farm Income Increased

An increase in farm income was cited by the department as the main cause of the June increase n personal income as compared to May, for which the annual rate was $212,900,000,000. Farm income went up, the department said, because of an increased volume of crops sold or placed under government loan.

significantly, Perhaps more however, factory payrolls were credited with a slight increase in June after having declined steadily since last September. Wages rose in the non-durable goods industries and steadied in the durable goods lines, the department

Dividend payments to investors also were up in June, as were most other sources of personal income-receipts of owners of unincorporated business, net rents received by landlords, and practically everything from paychecks to relief checks going to persons as distinguished from corpora-

This strengthening in consumer buying power, indisputably one of the major bulwarks of the economy, furnished background for a psychological development reported by President Truman's chief economic adviser, Dr. Edwin G. Nourse.

Sentiment among businessmen as become "generally better," Nourse told reporters while calling at the White House with associates to give President Truman a fresh picture of the economic scene.

Dr. Nourse cited the steady rise of the stock market in recent weeks as evidence of improvement in the sentiment of businessmen. For himself, the presidential adviser would say our that the general economic picture is little changed since midyear report he and his associates furnished President Truman.

Plan Help To Jobless The White House went ahead with plans for combating unemployment by concentrating or federal spending in troubled Presidential aide John R. Steelman released a letter to military procurement people and other spending agencies naming specific areas which could be helped by the concentration of government outlays. Also, the Steelman letter set a standard for determining when a section is so troubled by unemployment as to require a transfusion of federal dollars to pep up its economy. The Standard: Unemployment amounting to 12 per cent or more of the available labor force. That means that federal aid should be given whenever as many as 12 in each 100 persons wanting jobs are unable to find them.

Steelman's new standard in effect defined as a "troubled" area any places where the unemployment problem is approximately twice as bad as that for the nation as a whole, as reflected in the census bureau's national figures for July. The bureau reported unemployment, highest since early 1942, totaled 4,095,000 in a civilian labor force of 63,815.000. That would make the national unemployment approximately 6.4 per cent of the working population. Steelman told the spending agencies that the places which need help to absorb unemployed workers are New Bedford, and Worchester, Mass., Providence, R I., Waterbury and Bridgeport in Connecticut, the Utica-Rome, N. Y., alea, the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre, Pa, area, Muskegon, Mich. and Knoxville, Tenn

Other areas will be designated later as data on labor situations are developed, Steelman told the agencies. He said, in fact, that the Lawrence, Mass., and Cumberland, Md. areas probably will be so classified.
